

'UP has potential for home products'

LUCKNOW :Arun Roongta, managing director, HGH India said UP had a dual opportunity in the Indian domestic market to become a centre of activity for home products. While large cities like Lucknow and Kanpur were emerging big retail and consumption centres, various handicraft centres could emerge as leading suppliers across the country, he said, adding retailers and wholesalers of UP, specifically Lucknow could use HGH India as a platform to source world-class products.
